

SMART STATIONS IN SMART CITIES

6th International Conference on Railway Stations

Madrid, 19-21 OCTOBER 2017

ACCESSIBLE STATIONS FOR HEARING IMPAIRED PERSONS

Manel Alcaide

CEO, Visualfy, Spain

Room 2. Accessibility in the information age

UNDER THE HIGH PATRONAGE OF

ORGANISERS

normal people normal life
invisible problems

¿is it expensive?

ABC.es | NULL

Ir a ABC de Sevilla

Home > Trains Magazine > Forums > General Discussion > Deaf man victim of train accident....

Deaf man victim of train

NEWS TRAFFIC ON FOX31 ON CHANNEL 2

CITY SPORTS

Deaf man killed in Aurora

1300 deaths per year worldwide in the 90's

Average of 52.155,2€ per victim

23 replies | 983 views

POSTED 4:43 PM, FEBRUARY 19, 2017, BY MICHAEL

Human life, loss of human capital, health care, administrative costs...

about 500 death victims per year in EEUU

AURORA, Colo. -- A deaf man was fatally hit by an RTD train while he was crossing the R Line on Sunday, the Aurora Police Department said.

The image shows four digital display screens at a train station, each providing information for a different line. Each screen includes a sign language interpreter video. Below the screens are station maps for each line.

Line	Time	Destination	Platform
City then North Shore Line	4:36	Nth Sydney via Central	1
City then North Shore Line	18 mins	Berowra via Central	1
City then North Shore Line	28 mins	Central (i) Express	1
Cumberland Line	-	-	-
Cumberland Line	16 mins	Campbelltown All stops	3
Cumberland Line	21 mins	Hornsby Limited stops via Central	1
Blue Mountains Line	4:46	Emu Plains	2
Blue Mountains Line	13 mins	Blacktown All stops	4
Blue Mountains Line	15 mins	Lithgow Limited stops	2
Western Line	-	-	-
Western Line	34 mins	Richmond Limited stops	2
Western Line	57 mins	Schofields All stops	4 differences?

THANK YOU
GRACIAS

UNDER THE HIGH PATRONAGE OF

ORGANISERS

